Sheriff's Sale of Real Estate on Foreclosure.

By virtue and authority of an order of sale on foreclosure, issued from the office of the clerk of the District Court, in and for Cherokee county, Eleventh Judicial District of the State of Kansas sitting at Columbus, and to me directed and delivered, in the cause wherein Ellen Peters is plaintiff, and F. P. Long and Dorothy M. Long are defendants, and wherein said court did order and adjudge that the lands and tenements, situated and being in Cherokee county, State of Kansas, and described as follows, to-wit: Lots One (1) Two (2) Three (3) Ten (10) Eleven (11) and Twelve (12) in Block Nine (9) of Higgins, addition to the city of Baxter Springs be advertised and sold according to law. Now, therefore, I do advertise the above described real property for sale, and I will on Saturday the 7th day of January 1911, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the north door of the court house, in the city of Columbus, in Cherokee county, in the state of Kansas, offer for sale and sell at public auction, for cash in hand, to the highest bidder, all the right, title, interest, claim, estate and property of the above named F. P. Long and Dorothy M. Long, in, in and to the above described real property.

JAMES HAYTON,
Sheriff Cherokee County.

M. C. HARPER, Secretary.

"I had been troubled with constipation for two years and tried all of the best physicians in Bristol, Tenn., and they could do nothing for me," writes Thos. E. Williams, Middleboro, Ky. "Two packages of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cured me." For sale by all dealers.

Great Combination Sale of Blooded Stock.

On Tuesday, Feb. 7, 1911, there will be a sale of all kinds of blooded stock at John Wiswell's barns in Columbus, Kansas.

There will be many fine Jacks and Stallions, Jennets and Mares, besides all kinds of Cattle, Hogs, Sheep and Goats.

Anyone wishing to dispose of a good breeding animal of any kind will have a fine opportunity at this sale. Stock does not necessarily have to be registered, or eligible to registry in order to enter this sale, but the facts will be given in such cases in catalogue.

Catalogue will be ready Jan. 15.

Let us hear from you.

J. WISWELL & CO.,
Sherman, Kans.

When your feet are wet and cold, and your body chilled through and through from exposure, take a big dose of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, bathe your feet in hot water before going to bed, and you are almost certain to ward off a severe cold.

Stockholders' Meeting.

Gus Lundgren, the popular manager of the Long-Bell Lumber Company at this point, was passing mighty nice wheatstones the latter part of last week, the compliments of the company.

S. T. Coe and son, Clifford, are home from their trip to Port Arthur, Texas. Mr. Coe says it rained every day they were there. That is it rained at Port Arthur, you understand; not in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Gregory of Claremore, Okla., were here on Monday to attend the funeral of little Marguerite Wilson. Mrs. Gregory is an aunt of little Marguerite and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stradling.

Daddy Parks, formerly with the Wyeth Hardware Company of St. Joe, Mo., and who used to "make" this city very often while on the road, has bought the Bungalow hotel and bath house at Claremore, Okla. Baxterites who are acquainted with Daddy will surely stop with him when at

J. M. Wilson and his brother of Sapulpa spent Christmas with their father and sisters in this city.

Jim Bulger will leave about the middle of January for business in the East. He will go to New York City, and from there to Washington, after which he will come home and remain a few days, when he will leave for Mexico to look after some business matters.

A. G. Hanback will leave the 4th of January for Topeka to assume his duties as postmaster of the state senate. The legislature will convene on the 9th, but mail will begin to accumulate before that time, so it will be necessary for Mr. Hanback to be there a few days ahead of time to take care of the mail.

Little Marguerite Wilson, the fifteen months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Wilson, died Christmas day at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stradling, one mile north of this city. The little girl was stricken with membranous croup. Funeral services were held on Monday of this week and interment was made in the Baxter cemetery.

Our old friend, Martin Shanks, from out on Route No. 5, was in town last Thursday, but he did not tarry for long. No, sirree. The old rascal had a suit case which he was taking to Joplin to get filled for Christmas. What with, did you ask? Well, we do not know, but it is our belief that it was filled with what most suit cases are when they are taken to Joplin empty. And when we were tacked him about it, he did not enter a denial to each and every article in the drawer
